Taking good photographs - Keep it Simple

Do you have a digital or film camera and would like to take good photographs without committing to a long and expensive course? This is an ideal opportunity for you to learn in a friendly and informal afternoon and at no cost as the talk is funded by the Flix & Pix Festival week through The Hawkhurst Community Partnership.

John Hunt, a well-known local photographer and an Associate of the Royal Photographic Society, will be giving an illustrated talk on 'keeping it simple' to take good photographs.

Learn how to: Take good photographs without expensive equipment. Know the best time and the right conditions. Take portraits of the family or holiday pictures you'll be proud of whether it is on digital or film. Know what to look for when a photo opportunity arises. Question and answer session. Young people & senior members of the community especially invited.

Where: Dunks Hall, Highgate
When: Wednesday 24th June 2009, at 3 p.m. for an hour

And again at: The Function Room, The Eight Bells, The Moor
Thursday, 25th June 2009, at 7 p.m. for an hour
